

I love AIR 1 radio station. It serves my family and myself like nothing else in our community. I believe that AIR 1 is a truly unique service in our community and there are plenty of other stations to choose from other types of broadcasts. I believe that AIR 1 is in the public interest because it allows people who would not normally listen to Christian music to have something they love to listen to.